Remembrance

Can you think of one really good memory

And one really bad one?

What made you remember those in particular?

Have you learnt from them?

Is there one moment in history you would like to change?

Is there one you would like to be able to travel back and see?

Bible Study

Read Psalm 44

Verses 1-3

What might the psalmist be remembering?
Do those sort of memories help you?

Verses 9-12

This is one of the complaint psalms. Do you have sympathy with the writer? What would you add?

Verses 20-26

Does life seem unfair? Do you feel guilty when you have done nothing wrong?

How would you encourage the psalmist?
(and yourself)

Additional Reading

Romans 8 verses 35 to 39

Why is it important that Paul includes each of the possible problems in the list?

Additional questions

What would you want to teach a young Christian to remember from the Bible? What are the really important events?

Are there events in British history which you want to give thanks to God for?

Are there any events in British history we should remember for a lesson to avoid?

Are some things best forgotten?

Is it a good thing to remember the war? How can this help?
